

Resource	Category	Short description or summary	Age appropriate
	B=book/magazine, A=article, P=podcast, V=video/film, W=website		Y=children under 10, T=tween+teen, A=adult
The Awakening of Colin Kaepernick	A	Story of how NFL quarterback became involved in social justice and racial equity work	T, A
White privilege statistics	A	A data-based approach to understanding white privilege and systemic racism	T, A
The white flight of Derek Black	A	Story about young man raised by nationally-known white nationalists who left behind his racist beliefs	T, A
Reformed Racists	A with V	Stories of former racists and hate-group members	T, A
Teaching children not to be racist	A	Research-based suggestions for parents and educators	A
Teach young children about bias, diversity, and social justice	A	5 strategies for teaching young children about race	A
Book list from the Anti-Defamation League	B	List of books on various topics; searchable subtopics like race, GLBTQ, sexism	A
Lesson plans for social justice topics	W	Grade-specific lesson plans on various diversity and social justice topics	A
25 mini films for teaching students about race, bias, and identity	W with V	Videos
How to talk about race in a mostly white classroom	A	Seven strategies for talking with white students about race	T, A
Book list from the Anti-Defamation League	B	Book links for anti-discrimination books	All
The adultification of black girls	A	Summary of research on how black girls are viewed differently than white girls; includes links to two PDFs containing in-depth research, statistics, and studies	A
Crack, heroin, and race	A	Explanation of differences in the societal response to white and black drug users	A
Editorial about drug abuse and race	A	How race affects society's response to drug abuse	A
The long and difficult journey of a recovering racist	A	A man of the South owns his racism and challenges our nation to do the same.	A
The Mighty Miss Malone by Christopher Paul Curtis	B	The fictional story of an African-American family, their struggles, and triumphs in late 1930's USA.	All
Ibram Kendi, one of the nation's leading scholars of racism, says education and love are not the answer	A	Ibram Kendi, one of the nation's leading scholars of racism, says education and love are not the answer. Founder of new anti-racism center at American University sees impact of policy, culture on black athletes	T, A
Stamped from the Beginning. The Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America by Ibram Kendi	B	2016 National Book Award (nonfiction). From book description: Contrary to popular conceptions, racist ideas did not arise from ignorance or hatred. Instead, they were devised and honed by some of the most brilliant minds of each era. These intellectuals used their brilliance to justify and rationalize deeply entrenched discriminatory policies and the nation's racial disparities in everything from wealth to health. And while racist ideas are easily produced and easily consumed, they can also be discredited. In shedding much-needed light on the murky history of racist ideas, Stamped from the Beginning offers us the tools we need to expose them--and in the process, gives us reason to hope.	T, A

Resource	Category	Short description or summary	Age appropriate
	B=book/magazine, A=article, P=podcast, V=video/film, W=website		Y=children under 10, T=tween+teen, A=adult
Seeing White podcast	P	Host and producer John Biewen set out to take a different kind of look at race and ethnicity, by looking directly at the elephant in the room: white people, and whiteness. White supremacy was encoded in the DNA of the United States, and white people dominate American life and its institutions to this day, and yet whiteness too often remains invisible, unmarked, and unnamed.	T, A
46 Books By Women of Color to Read in 2018	A		T, A
Podcast: Uncivil	O	America is divided, and it always has been. We're going back to the moment when that split turned into war. This is Uncivil: Gimlet Media's new history podcast, hosted by journalists Jack Hitt and Chenjerai Kumanyika.	T, A
State of Black Asheville	A	Annual report about racial disparities in Asheville and a conference on the report with members of the Buncombe County community.	T, A
Asheville Branch--NAACP	W	Local Asheville Branch information for The NAACP, the Premier Civil Rights organization in the United States, has been a leading force for equality. From its inception in 1909 until today the NAACP continues to push forward in political, economic, and social issues.	T, A
Project Implicit--Implicit Association Test	W	Take the Implicit Association Test (IAT). The test measures attitudes and beliefs that people may be unwilling or unable to report. The IAT may be especially interesting if it shows that you have an implicit attitude that you did not know about. Tests regarding attitudes and beliefs about race, religion, age, gender, sexuality, disability, etc.	T, A
Let's Talk About Race	V	The video is entitled Let's Talk About Race, and it presents a perspective on how we as white people can build our capacity to talk about race.	T, A
When Will the United States Transcend White Supremacy?	A	Provocative essay by University of Texas professor Robert Jensen. Now that the violence in Charlottesville has forced "white supremacy" into our political vocabulary, let's ask an uncomfortable question: "When will the United States transcend white supremacy?"	A
Teaching Tolerance	W	Our mission is to reduce prejudice, improve intergroup relations and support equitable school experiences for our nation's children. We believe that schools must educate all students for full participation in a diverse democracy.	T, A
Teach young children about bias, diversity, and social justice	A	Article re 5 strategies for teaching young children about race	T, A
How to talk about race in a mostly white classroom	A	7 strategies for talking with white students about race	A
White privilege statistics	A	A data-based approach to understanding white privilege and systemic racism	T, A
Book list on prejudice and discrimination from A Mighty Girl	B	Book list on prejudice and discrimination from A Mighty Girl	All
25 mini films for teaching students about race, bias, and social justice	V		T, A
GETTING REAL ABOUT EDUCATION: A Conversation With Black Parents, Teachers and Students	V, A	What happens when you get Black teachers, parents and students in a room with no talking points, no filter, just honest conversation? Well, as a Black baby raised in the '90s would say, "it got real." We recently invited more than 40 participants to share the joys and frustrations of being Black in America's public schools.	T, A

Resource	Category	Short description or summary	Age appropriate
	B=book/magazine, A=article, P=podcast, V=video/film, W=website		Y=children under 10, T=tween+teen, A=adult
A Sociologist Examines the "White Fragility" That Prevents White Americans from Confronting Racism	A	Much of Robin DiAngelo's book is dedicated to pulling back the veil on so-called pillars of whiteness: assumptions that prop up racist beliefs without white people realizing it.	T, A